

Upper Valley Waldorf School
Grades Teaching Position Opening for Fall 2024

Discover a unique teaching opportunity in the Upper Valley, a picturesque region bordering the Green Mountains of Vermont and the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Our Vermont Waldorf school is seeking a grades class teacher to join our team of educators who represent a rich spectrum of life experiences and a passion for artistic teaching.

As part of a community that values Waldorf education, you will have the chance to engage with a supportive parent body and collaborate with a strong Board. With three other Waldorf schools within a two-hour drive and access to the New England Waldorf Teachers Training Program in Keene, NH, there are many opportunities for continuing education, conferences, and other events.

The Upper Valley Waldorf School is a Pre-Kindergarten through Eighth Grade school with a current enrollment of 134 for the 2023-2024 school year. We offer a rich Waldorf curriculum, which includes French, woodwork, handwork, movement, instrumental music, and chorus. Our school holds a dual accreditation with AWSNA/NEASC, and we completed a successful capital campaign in 2018 resulting in a new wing that provided new classrooms for students in grades 5-8, a library, and office and meeting spaces.

Our well-established administrative team ensures smooth operations, allowing you to focus on nurturing creativity and delivering a Waldorf imbued education.

Escape the urban hustle while being just two hours from Boston, four from Montreal, and five from New York City. Join us in the Upper Valley and become part of a Waldorf school community that values the artistic approach to teaching.

Salary: Base $45,673 plus applicable experience. Full benefits package includes a generous Health Insurance Plan, Tuition Remission, Professional Development Support, Short- & Long-Term Disability, Life Insurance, T. Rowe Retirement Plan, and access to Dental & Vision Insurance and a Flexible Savings Account.
